

What We Are Reading

AAUW – Issaquah Branch

The Issaquah Branch of AAUW has two book groups that meet monthly to discuss books that they have all read and other books that individuals are reading. One group meets during the day and the other meets in the evening. Each group selects their own books, but they often read the same books (if not in the same month). Recent selections include:

- Zoobiquity: The Astonishing Connection Between Human and Animal Health by Barbara Natterson-Horowitz, Kathryn Bowers
- A Gentleman in Moscow by Amor Towles
- Falling Leaves: The Memoir of an Unwanted Chinese Daughter by Adeline Yen Mah
- Steve Jobs by Walter Isaacson
- The Zookeeper's Wife: A War Story, by Diane Ackerman
- News of the World, by Paulette Jiles
- The Gatekeepers: How the White House Chiefs of Staff Define Every Presidency, by Chris Whipple
- A Piece of the World, by Christina Baker Kline
- Lab Girl, by Hope Jahren
- The Girl Who Wrote in Silk by Kelli Estes.

Upcoming selections include

- Beneath a Scarlet Sky by Mark Sullivan
- The Japanese Lover, Isabel Allende
- The Future is History: How Totalitarianism Reclaimed Russia by Masha Gessen.
- Other Minds: The Octopus, the Sea, and the Deep Origins of Consciousness, Peter Godfrey Smith
- Code Girls: The Untold Story of the American Women Code Breakers Who Helped Win World War II, Liza Mundy
- The Elephant Whisperer, Lawrence Anthony, Graham Spence

Our book groups are open to all members of the Issaquah branch.
